“ I still can't believe you're gone. You had such a force of outspokenness and love of family and friends. You were hysterically funny, fiercely loyal and had a heart as big as Texas. Mt friend for 55 years. My heart is broken.

Fly high my beautiful sister. I'll never forget your laugh, your humor and how you would break into song. I will love and miss for eternity. Until we meet again. 🦋

“ I’m not really sure what to say, i guess that it hasn’t hit me just yet that you are gone from this life. I miss you like I always do when you leave to go back home only this time We can’t call you to make it easier. You deserved so much more and so much better than you received in this life. I wish (as selfish as it is) that We had just one more day to spend with you to say our goodbyes. It wouldn’t make it easier but at least we could try a little harder to make sure you know that we love you and how much you truly mean to us. It’s comforting to know that you are up there watching over us, please take care of Tina, she will need your guidance and protection far more than I will. We will be seeing you again, I love you mom, far more than you ever realized.
