

Carey Leon Jordy

April 2, 1943 - December 2, 2020

Carey Leon Jordy, 77, of Huntsville, Texas, died on December 2, 2020. He was born April 2, 1943, in Port Sulphur, Louisiana, to James Roger and Effie Lanette (Cabiness) Jordy.

He attended Huntsville High School, Huntsville, Texas, before leaving to serve in the U.S. Navy for four years. After his return to civilian life in Texas, Carey worked various jobs including being a private investigator and driving trucks for Caterpillar and Texas Mirror/Gardner Glass. In 1985, Carey and his family returned to his parent's property in Huntsville, Texas, where he continued his career as a truck driver and began working on obtaining his GED. After receiving his GED, he began working as the groundskeeper for the Sam Houston Memorial Museum, where he remained until his retirement.

On June 5, 1998, he married Allyson Lea Jordy in Trinity, Texas. For over 20 years, Carey and Allyson enjoyed each other's love and company, raised their families, helped in their church, traveled on many adventures, and took in and cared for many people in need. Carey was known for his larger-than-life personality, boisterous laugh, and amazing storytelling. Whether you found him shopping at HEB or working his side job picking up trash in the bank parking lots, he was always up for an audience. However, one of his favorite things was to be sitting in his recliner in the house on the hill of the family property. He loved that property, and so much so that he made sure he got home to that recliner one more time.

He is survived by his daughter and her family, Corin, Brett and Blakely

Thomlinson of McKinney, Texas, his step-sons and their families; Adam and Heather Winningham of Huntsville, Texas, and Jacob and Zoey Winningham of Newport, Arkansas; and his adopted daughter, Brianna (Bri) Winningham-Jordy of Huntsville, Texas. He is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Roger Jordy, his mother, Effie Lanette Jordy, his wife, Allyson Lea Jordy, his sister, Shirley Ann Collins, and his half-sister, Susanne Sarson.

His viewing will be held at Calvary Baptist Church, 1135 Hwy 190E, Huntsville, Texas, from 9 am to 11 am on Sat. Dec. 5, 2020, immediately followed by a memorial service that will conclude by 12 pm.

Arrangements are with Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, and condolences can be left at www.shmfh.com. In lieu of flowers, donations made be made to: ALSAC/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, www.stjude.org , 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105

“ So sorry to learn of Carey's death. I had just learned that he was in the hospital. He was always helpful to anyone that had a need. In fact Carey repaired a door in my home several years ago. He would not take any money for his work either! I am so sorry for his family. They have lost a true friend and a wonderful Man.I know he and Allyson are having a lovely reunion in Heaven! They were both very special people! If I can help in any way, please give me a call. Lean on Jesus and HE will give you the love you need and wrap his loving arms around you.Bre, you are a brave and special young lady. I know it is hard to lose both adopted parents so close together. If I can help you please give me a call and I will talk, listen, or come pick you up if you need me.

*My Love to all of you,

“ Cary and I attended high school together and I always considered him a good friend . Our last class of 63 reunion we got to have a good visit, he told me at the time his wife was very ill and I passed on a gold coin to give her that William Dabaghi had given to me. I hope it brought her joy. Cary seemed to appreciate the gesture .
