“ *To Carl & Debbie and the Gougler Family,
Our deepest sympathies are going your way at the passing of your beloved father. It is never an easy circumstance to deal with or accept but unfortunately a necessary part of life we must all encounter. Although it seems like you may not recover, your heart and mind will go on and it will grow easier with every passing day. We can say nothing now that will ease your mind but we can definitely offer our condolences and our prayers and a friendly ear to listen. Please let us help in any way possible.*
