“ Dear Mrs. Loftin, Carla, and Family:
Carla's friends in California have been thinking about all of Mr. Loftin's loved ones and praying for them as well. Please know that we are here for Carla, Neal, Sam and Shannon. We will do whatever we can to ease Carla's pain. I hope Carla will lean on us for comfort, support or a good laugh with a cup of coffee.
Love,

Evelyn

“ Emma, I am so thankful that Carla was able to be home in Texas for both you and Carl the last few weeks. My thoughts and prayers have been with you all. Be assured that her extended family in California will be here for her when she returns.

Carla, I was thinking so much about you on Thursday last week, was planning all day to pick up the phone and see how you were doing. Now I know why you were so much in my thoughts. Take care until we see you back home in California.

God Bless all, Lori.

“ Carla,
All of us at home in CA are thinking of you. I sympathize with your loss and know (from experience) that time does help somewhat to heal the empty place. Blessings and prayers to all of your family. Embrace your memories as they will ease the pain.
Love, Karen

“ *Dear Carla and Family,
Truly, words cannot express the grief and pain of the loss of father, husband, grandpa and friend you all must feel in different ways. But in the midst of your tears may you find comfort in knowing that his love for you was real through the hard times and smooth times. May your memories of him be uplifting and last a lifetime.
