Carl was preceded in death by his parents, Clara and Curtis Wiggins, and by his beloved siblings: A.W. (Sonny) Wiggins and wife Mary Katherine, Larry C. Wiggins, Sr. and wife MariGene, Earl Wiggins and his sister Mignonne Wiggins McCann. He is survived by his brother-in-law, John Phillip McCann and sister-in-law Mary Wiggins.

Bryan proudly served his country as a Navy veteran and built a respected career as a control's specialist for various power companies. Known for his integrity and calm demeanor, he carried a sweet smile and never compromised what is right.

In retirement, Carl continued to serve his community as a property tax consultant and principal of Appraisal Protest LLC. He remained sharp, engaged, and deeply committed to helping others navigate the system with fairness and clarity.

Carl found joy in the simple things. He was a devoted Houston Cougar football fan, never missed an Astros game, and had a deep love for Texas country music. He cherished his time “piddling” with anything mechanical fixing, tinkering, and improving whatever he touched. He especially loved clear mountain mornings, where the peace and beauty of the outdoors reflected his gentle and reflective nature.
