“ John 14:1-4 “Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going.”
I’m sorry for your loss. Carol will be missed.

Oh my heart hurts at the loss of such a beautiful "second" mom to me and my twin sister and a dear friend to my mom and dad!! We moved just across the street from the Meehan"s in 72. I have so many fond memories to many to list. Mr Meehan (Bob) worked in the same profession as my dad and convinced my dad to move . So many countless memories of my new 4 girlfriends and the greatest mom and dad across the street!!!! Mama Caaarrrrolll as I called her will be missed as Bob is also!!! I am certain that she is reunited with the loves lost and I pray that all find peace I am beyond blessed to have known the kindest, funniest and head strong person EVER !! I love you Mama Carol!!

A truly beautiful woman with an equally beautiful soul was Carol. We are all blessed having known you. Your girls and their children and grandchildren will continue your legacy of love, hope and faith. Be comforted little Meehan girls; she is in the arms of Jesus and her loved ones gone on before her. Love, Donna (Cafero) Futch and Wayne Futch.

This is what Carol looked like, when I knew her! I knew her from grade school through High School. We were in the same Sorority, and lived just down the street from one another. She was fun, and always smiling. She moved away to Texas, after being married. We reconnected by Facebook and spoke for hours on phone, e-mails etc. I am so glad that I had that time to spend with her, and to meet her wonderful family, (through Facebook) She will be missed. Love to her beautiful family

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. I so enjoyed my yearly visits with your Mom. Her "go-getter" attitude always brought a smile to my face.
