“ I am dedicating this memory of my wife Carol and best for the ten years that we were together. Carol and I met on a dating site and I knew that when I first saw Carol that she was the one that I wanted as my wife and I do not regret the choice that I made i feel that God put us together and I would do over again. Carol loved two things during the time that she was here and that was children and animals. She lived for her grandchildren and they were her life. I know that she has gone to be with our lord and that we will meet again soon until rest in peace my love .Love always your husband John.

“ You been the best mom I could ever ask for and I am blessed that you came into our family and made dad happy again and I wish you could have stayed longer and saying goodbye to you wasn't easy but I know your in Heaven and your not suffering anymore. love you and will always miss you

Michelle Clark - May 01, 2019 at 06:29 AM

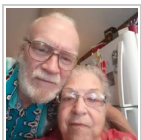

Thank you Michelle your mother was a very special person that God put in my life and I will always have a special place in heart for her always and I know that God has called her home to be with Him and that we will meet again someday and that Carol would have wanted me to go on with my life and that plus my faith in God and my close friends that have stood by me since Carols passing have made this a little easier.
