“ I would like to extend my deepest condolences to the Coopers, having loss two family members in such a short time span must be heartbreaking. I loved Carol from the 1st time we met and discussed with her becoming our companies CPA, her straight forwardness and honesty was exactly what we were in search of and she checked all the boxes!! From the moment we began our business relationship I always felt I was in the best of care- make no bones about who was in charge. LOL. There was only 1 way of doing things ! and that was Carols way - the right way. Carol and her staff were always prompt with their work, fair in their pricing and very professional in their dealings. Carols has been and will continue to be missed and fondly remembered.

*Respectfully, Tom Valentine
