“ Carolyn was such a beautiful woman. She loved God and loved people. She always had a smile that was warm and caring. I have not had the privileged of being around her for a couple of years now... but I know one day we will embrace and worship our God together with one voice. Love you Friend!

“ When you have a Aunt like Aunt Carolyn you have no worries. As a kid I remember going to sonic and getting super sonic cheeseburgers and tator tots. Now Aunt Carolyn was also soft spoken and polite and when we would ask her something she would always say. Go ask uncle Robert! Well we always knew Uncle Robert would say yes. And I still Believe he would say yes just so he could sit back and say watch this. I never Seen Aunt Carolyn mad but she did have that look at time. The we didn't want to test side. Anyway RIP Aunt Carolyn we shall meet again. Much love Shane
