“ Just heard about this, and I am deeply sorrowed. I grew up with Chuck, and remember many talks we had on the elementary school playground. I know you are in a better place, but you will be missed here in this place. Will see you again one day, my friend. Diana Guidry, Class of 75

“ Dear Charles - the first time I saw you was on a cold January night when your big brother brought me to Huntsville to meet your mom and daddy and you. This was in 1969, and you were a young teenager. first thing I know there you are with a with a gallon jar, some kind of solution and a huge long dead snake in it. Life around you and your brother was never boring. I'll never forget your mom called you CHARLIE MAN, Pete was called BUBBA, and her other son Bill, was called Billy Fred. Even when you were a young boy you knew all on the old stories by heart, you were a walking history reference of old times in your family and Huntsville in general. Even then you knew about good food and good fun. I AM SO GLAD I CALLED YOU ON YOUR BIRTHDAY. Like your friend said about your party, we had no idea it was the last time. So now you are in Heaven with those you loved. That leaves only Aunt Lema and I of the old core family group left to try to remember the old stories. No one else cared or came around to be a family. You will be missed and loved.

“ We met Charles through the Walker County Historical Commission. Charles always brought the BEST refreshments after the meeting. I wish I could duplicate his recipes. Always enjoyed talking with him either at the Historical meetings or at the grocery store. He will be missed a lot. Barbara & Tom Stafford

“ I was always glad when Chuck (he was always Chuck to me) came in to attend services at St. Stephen's/Houston. We would go out for lunch after services, and he always made the day a little brighter. I would chat with him nearly every morning on Facebook over coffee, and I miss that. We all have things we will miss, and my prayers and thoughts are with his family during this dark time. I attended his birthday party this year, never imagining that it would be his last -- but it was a nice party, lots of food, friends and neighbors, and he had a ball. It makes me smile inside knowing that.

Chuck was my friend on Facebook and always responded when we said hello. He is missed and our prayers are for his family and friends. Thanks.
