“ My deepest sympathy to the Lanham on the loss of Charles. He was at one time my brother-in-law and the fondest memory I have is this. When my oldest daughter, Maren was about 2 months old he took a picture of her in her bassinet. He mounted the picture of my beautiful baby on a stained block of wood and presented it to as Christmas gift. I cherished it and I still have it on display in my home. Rest in peace Charles, you will be missed by your entire family.....Carol Mayberry Brown
