“ Growing up, uncle Sonny was a constant presence. I am so blessed to have had him as a roll model. He was always dignified and dedicated. He was always a hard worker, as is the Parker way. (My mother was as well) I will miss him so, but am so happy he is in the presence of our Savior. Love always, Cheryl

“ I'm really going to miss seeing you, Mr. Parker (aka Uncle Sonny, to even some of us not actually related). Will miss you visiting and walking through the shop saying "HEY! are you working hard, or hardly working?" Of course, I would answer with one or the other. You will be missed, good sir!

I know in my heart that you are rejoicing with Mom, Dad, Rayburn, Raymond, Wanda, Bobby and all the other family members who have gone before us. Yet, I am deeply saddened because I will miss you – everything that made you the great brother and man that you were. We have yet another guardian angel in Heaven to watch over us.

To Barbara, Charles, David, Patty and families – our prayers and love. Prayers for strength in this difficult time, and for peace in your heart knowing that our loved one is with his Heavenly Father.
