

Charles "Mac" Price

May 3, 1940 - June 14, 2010

Charles Barry "Mac" Price Mac was born on May 3, 1940 in a car on the way to the hospital in Pineville, LA. He is the son of the late Kerwin R. Price and Joanna Vines Price. He died suddenly on June 9, 2010 and was last seen by his twin grandsons climbing his magic bean stalk up to heaven. Mac was raised in Westlake, LA where he graduated from Westlake High School and excelled in basketball. Next, his journey took him to Lafayette, LA where he attended Southwest Louisiana Institute on a basketball scholarship. Mac's childhood friends decided to enlist in the military, so Mac followed suit and enlisted in the United States Navy where he served as a hospital corpsman with the United States Marine Corp in San Diego, CA and the Phillipine's - where he was known as "Painless Price". He respected the Marines more than anything and always considered himself one of their own. Mac was honorably discharged in 1963. He returned to college and earned back his basketball scholarship at the newly named University of Southwestern Louisiana where he achieved a BA in Marketing, met his beloved wife and graduated in 1967. Mac's journey then took him to Jackson, MS and Portland, TX. It was in Portland where he was able to finely tune his skills as a fisherman and take up his second favorite pastime of sailing. He then moved to Newport News, VA before settling in Huntsville, TX where he worked as a stock broker with Southwest Securities for 29 years. He was a tireless supporter of St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus and Nets for Kids. His infectious humor, contagious smile and unwavering candor leave us, but many fond memories remain. He never forgot a joke and was known as an accomplished story teller. His desire to be a craftsman left us with many unfinished jobs around the house and a garage full of unfinished projects. He enjoyed fishing, sailing and conversing with friends. He loved reading and had a relentless thirst for knowledge. He was modest and humble, and enjoyed being a "life coach" for those in need of direction, not realizing the impact that he had on those around him. Mac is survived by his wife of nearly 43 years, Kathleen Foreman Price; Sons, Bradley Charles Price and his wife Lara Ellermeier Price of McKinney TX, Barry Coleman Price and wife Jeannine Ogle Price of Spring, TX; Daughter, Mary Jo Thomas and husband Dave Thomas Jr. of Silverstrand Beach, CA; Grandsons and final legacies, Jackson Charles Price and Lucas Meier Price of McKinney, TX; brother, Kerwin Randolph Price Jr. and wife Helen Price; and numerous nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends. A visitation/rosary will be held at Sam Houston Funeral Home from 6PM - 8PM on Sunday June 13, 2010. A funeral mass will be held on Monday June 14, 2010 at 10:00 AM at Saint Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Huntsville Knights of Columbus Council #7153, PO Box 1236 Huntsville, TX 77342. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com “ Kathy, while I didn't know Mac very long for the short time that I did he proved to be a wonderful man. Pete was very upset to hear of his passing, Pete was fortunate enough to get to know him quite well, being a Brother Knight. Our prayers and thoughts remain with you and your family and if you need anything please let us know.

Love Pete and Susan

“ *Kathy and the Price Family,
A mutual friend, Jimmy Dykes wrote me about Mac's death. My husband came to USL in 1963 to coach with Beryl Shipley. I've heard many Mac Price stories over the years and laughed at everyone of them. Mac made a big impact on so many lives. My husband died very suddenly 8 years ago so my heart is with you and your family at such a difficult time. Please know you will all be in my thoughts and prayers at mass tomorrow morning. May their souls and all the souls rest in peace. My most sincere sympathy.

“ *To the PRICE FAMILY OUR CONDOLENCES GO OUT TO YOU. We have known "Mac" for awhile and done buisness thru him as a broker and we never called that he did not have time to chat with us for awhile and we thoroughly enjoyed talking with him. We are so sorry to hear this bad news. May God bless your family and we will keep you in our prayers.

“ Kathy and family,
We were so shocked to learn of Mac’s passing. Although we only live across the street, it was still a shock. We enjoyed every occasion that Mac and you where involved and really enjoyed the impromptu sidewalk meeting we often had. We will not pester you but if we can help, please let us know.
God bless you and your children for having a strong faith.

“ Somewhere between grief and acceptance, life's harshest lessons are taught. My grief was instant and painful, my acceptance grows gradually as the lessons gleaned from Mac's life, stories, and his passing slowly reveal themselves to me.

Mac always made me feel like family. He always greeted me with a smile and a firm handshake, even when fighting what ever bug the twins had given him with their visit, and he never failed to impress me with his depth of knowledge about a broad range of subjects.

I will cherish my memories of him, study his lessons and think upon his advice often, in an effort to lead a life as joyous, charitable and faithful as Mr. Price did.

Wow. What a shocker. But what a beautiful testimony of Mac's life in the obituary. Barbara and I are praying for you and the family. We regret that we will not be able to get to Huntsville due to scheduling conflicts but want you to know that you are always welcome whenever you get up to McKinney.
Love and prayers,

“ In the 40's Mac and I started growing up together, and were still in that process. He lived across the street and his Father had built a bunk house in their back yard. We spent many nights in there telling wild stories and how we would grow up. Mac was a special friend and I am glad I sent him a birthday greeting wishing him a happy 70th. He mentiond he was going to come to Westlake soon and I was looking forward to his visit. He is with God now and I am happy to believe that. I hope to make it to Huntsville Sunday evening, my heart is in going. Love to his family that I know was so dear to him. Ed Carpenter, friend for life.

“ Barry, I am so sorry to hear of your Daddy's passing. You and your family are in my prayers for God to help you through this difficult time. My Grandma had always told me that each person was placed here for one reason. That reason of course in unknown to us as we go through our daily routine. But once God see's that we have completed that job, he calls for us to return home. To know that your Daddy's one true calling was done and done well, you can hold your head high and know that he is amoung the greatest of all now. I pray that you and your family find strenght and understanding during this troubled time.

“ Kathy, Brad, Barry and MJ-

So sorry to hear about your loss. We will miss Mac so much but are very thankful that we were all able to gather recently at Barry's wedding and visit like the old days. We will miss his stories and jokes but know that he will have them rolling with laughter up above. Please know that our thoughts and love are with each of you.

“ Life with Mac Price, as a youngster , was a wonderful road to travel.He always had a smile and was a special friend. his Mother, Father and Brother were loved by Mac.

We have commucated over the years. He was so proud of "his boys". His entire family was dear to him.

Our prayers and love are with the entire family. We will miss our life long friend .

“ I am so sorry for your loss, words could not even begin to explain my heartbreak for your family. I have so many wonderful memories of your dad Mary Jo. He was a wonderful father whose love for you was so apparent and clear. I have such clear, joyful memories of him growing up next to you in Elkins Lake. I can still hear that booming voice saying "MJ" down the hall of your house. I am lucky to have known him and you all were so lucky to have him. My thoughts and prayers are with your entire family.
