“ Charles and I were great friends in REL High School... We loved riding around in his white chevrolet smiling at all at "Trainers drive in"... We talked some during the years since and met together only once in Huntsville, but he was always just a fine gentle spirit. So thrilled to hear his son is a pastor and will do the service... what a great tribute and fruit of good parenting.... Heaven is richer today... Pastor E. Everett Nix everett.nix@gmail.com

So Sorry for your loss. Charles was the finest home builder around. He was a stickler for detail; it had to be just right or he was not satisfied. 23 years later you can put a level on any counter and wall of window sill and still splits the bubble! His work and commitment to his work are unsurpassed.

“ So very sorry to hear about Charles. We have known him and helped him at the old Walker and Byrd Building Material for many years. He always had a smile and good words for us no matter how busy he was. He will be missed by the whole community. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family. May he rest in eternal peace with Our Lord. May God watch over his family and help you thru this difficult time. Ken and Theresa Westbay and family.

So sorry to learn about Charles passing. I met Charles when we went to school together. The one thing that I will always remember. He was a good artist. I figured he would end up drawing cartoons. He really had talent. Charles, you will be missed. Rest in Peace.

“ Our deepest sympathy and what a great loss to the community. We have known Charles for many years and even worked with him selling a few of his homes he built here at Elkins or on custom homes. A great loss for indeed and we send prayers to his son, his daughter in law and family. May God give you comfort in the days ahead.
