“ I wish to offer my condolences to the Wilkerson family. I am so proud of all our brave soldiers that have honorably served our country. No doubt Charles was a brave and proud marine. It sadden me deeply to read this story after surviving the dangers of Iraq and then have this terrible accident. Let us pray that these brave men will not be forgotten. May got bless Cara and all who loved Charles.

“ *The Wikerson Family,
My heart goes out to you all at this time of extreme pain.I pray to God that you all find the peace in your heart and soul for this young man. We cannot explain His actions all the times, yet we have to accept it. I am positive He is going to give the strength and lead you all towards that path of solace at this trying time.A very dear friend of mine has lost her son in a very tragic situation just ten days ago. I am still trying to cope up with this personally as well.We have to take a vow and see that the loss of these children do not go in vain.

“ I just wanted to send my condolences to Charles's family. I didn't have the opportunity to personally meet him but he was Marine Reservist with my Fiance, Sgt. Alfredo Casula. Alfredo would talk about how Charles and him would have such interesting conversations; that he was a very intellegent indivisual and great guy. Your family is in our prayers.
God Bless you and thank you for having such a wonder person who served for our country.

“ For all of Charles' family, I am so very sorry. I had not seen him in quite some time but I remember him very well. He was always a wonderful, talented and very friendly person who could make anyone comfortable. I remember him trying to teach my little brother, Ethan, to play the guitar. He was so very sweet. You will be in my thoughts.

“ Cara, We are so sorry for you. This is a most difficult time and my prayer is that you can trust in the care and keeping of our God. I am praying for a special comfort for you. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers often. It seems like you have had more than your share to endure in your young life. You are becoming a very strong young woman and I know that you will be able to help someone else in difficult times.

I am sorry that Uncle Larry and I won't be able to be with you tomorrow. Please know that we love you. Aunt Ree and Uncle Larry.

“ We were shocked and saddened to learn of the tragic death of Charley.
We remember him as a bright, energetic boy-full of promise. Although it has been many years since we have seen him, we enjoyed hearing about his life accomplishments from Toni and proud grandparents, Charles and Joanne.
Charley honored his country with his dedication to military service and we are so thankful to him for that!
At the very least, we want you to know how much we care and can only imagine how difficult this has been for your family.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you today and always-
