“ Uncle Charlie was truly a man of God, who shown brightly for His Lord everywhere he went. I loved to hear him sing and play his guitar. He was loved and respected by all who knew him.

May God give you comfort during this time.

“ Our prayers go out to all the family. We know you will all miss him greatly as we do. We looked forward every Sunday to hear him play and sing a special. He was a kind and gentle man. I know he is in no more pain as he is with Jesus. Now he is singing in heaven. We will always remember Brother Charlie.
