

Chelsi Lyn Taska

April 12, 2017 - September 27, 2017

If you don't know me, my name is Chelsi Lyn Taska. My short five months on this earth were pretty magical. My mom and dad, Leah and Joey Taska, loved me so very much. They gave kisses, hugs, and cuddles every single day. I even had a few wonderful siblings, Charli and Corbin. They played with me, pushed my stroller, and even tried to teach me to crawl. My grandparents, Frank and Stehanie Taska, Jerry and Karren Landers, Rick and Debbie Bosley, thought I was pretty special, too. They loved my happy smiles, easy-going personality and my wild but gorgeous hair. I'm pretty sure I was the favorite, but let's keep that a secret between you and me.

Thank you for all the love and support you've shown my family during this time. Please continue to be with them, and remind them that I am happy and safe in Jesus' arms. I will be with them every day. Please join them in this celebration of my very special life.

My visitation and services are shown below. There will be a light lunch, desserts, and coffee afterwards at Fellowship of Montgomery Church, 12681 FM 149, Montgomery, Texas 77316. Graveside service and balloon release on Monday, October 2, 2017 at 2:00 PM.

“ Sweet girl, I'll never forget the wonderful spirit you brought everyone that met you! I loved seeing the pure joy you gave your parents. Recently your dad brought you to see his coworkers and I was lucky to have gotten a moment with you. I will never forget that in mid conversation with your dad, you smiled at him, and that was it; he totally was lost in your stare! There is no wonder what your purpose was on this earth. My God wrap his arms around your family, and comfort with peace. I will never forget you Chelsi Lyn.
