“ Dear Cheril,
Although you will not read this, I feel that you are with me as I write this. You were the perfect sister in that we could disagree but still come together and settle our differences and embrace that love that only a brother and sister can have.

You knew me better than anyone and that was the connection that held us together. No matter how busy I was you always seemed to know when to call and make me take time to to stay connected.

*I will miss the calls a few weeks before your birthday to remind me that your birthday was just around the corner. I remember this year when you called and simply said....perfect size and color!
I had sent cash!*

Please watch over us as we try our best to go on without you here with us. I find peace at this time knowing that you are watching over us.

*My eternal love sweet sister.
God bless and keep you.

“ *My Dearest Sister Cheril,
You have always made my birthdays special and although you won't be here for this one in person, your spirit will be here as long as I am alive. Every song on the radio reminds me of you in some way from Queen that was on this morning to the Arc Angels I listened to on the way home. I see you in my thoughts at every turn and your grin and laughter fill my mind daily. I will miss our deep conversations and I promise not to be such an "ASS" to people as you always said I was. May you rest in peace my sweet soul sister and hope you are dancing in heaven and giving love to all our family who has passed. In the words of Aretha Franklin we will be showing our R-E-S-P-E-C-T to you and your bigger than life self!!!! Your baby brother - Don*

“ Marie and Sam, no words will lessen the hurt in your hearts, which I can only imagine. To bury a child is something no one should have to endure. The only joy that you can hold on to is knowing that your precious daughter is with Our Father. Heaven received a new angel and for heaven they are celebrating her wonderful parents who made her what she was. Our prayers remain with you both and I pray that the arms of our Lord stay around you as long as you need them to. Love to you both and your family.

“ Sam, Marie and family, I am sorry to hear about your loss. If we did not know she was in a better place, it would be unbearable. She is now in a wonderful place that we all hope to go to some day. It would not be a good idea for me to come to visitation. I am probably contagious and none of you need that right now. You have my love and sympathy.

“ Dear Sam and Marie,
I can't know the depth of your pain, but I can sympathize with you both because of the passing of my loved ones. The Blessed Mother will enfold you in her mantle of love, and you will feel her comforting you. May God bless each person in your family with His healing touch. Jesus will be at your side every moment of your lives, and especially during this time of sorrow.

Remember that suffering is but the "Kiss of Christ" and we must all suffer as we follow His Holy Will. Cheril is at peace!

*Love in Christ,

“ There are no words to lessen your sorrow, unless they were to come from Jesus Himself standing with you and comforting you. He said, Come to me, all of you who are weary and find life burdensome. I will refresh you! (Mat 11:28) Jesus heals are broken-heartedness, binds up our wounds. He became one with us in our pain and struggles. He knew physical pain when He was tortured and crucified. He knew emotional anguish when He was betrayed and abandoned by His friends. In His pain, He taught us the ultimate form of healing - acceptance of God's Will. He knew Cheril's anguish, pain, and uncertainty. He loved her more than you & Sam could, because HE IS GOD. In the still of the night, Marie, turn to Jesus and His Mother, Mary, ask them for their healing love; ask them to comfort you at this very sad time. Hopefully you will feel their love as they attempt to comfort you. Keep your thoughts on Jesus' loving ways, as you and Sam and the family and friends remember the fun, joy-filled days - the GOOD MEMORIES! We will see you at the Visitation. Our prayers have been for you and Sam as you've been going through your many trials these last few years. But I daily pray for Jesus' Mercy on all who may die this day or night. She is healthy now; remember her with her genuine smile & the twinkle in her eyes as she has told you she loves you both. We love you both and ask God to Bless you abundantly with the love of your friends and family. Love and Prayers to you, Don, Pam, Steven, and the rest of the family. Karen & Billy

“ To all the Martinez Family, I was so blessed to have grown up with your family. I have so many wonderful memories of our days together and especially with Cheril, since we were close in age. She was such an amazing girl with so many talents that she kept me in awe of her artistic abilities! We had just recently reunited on FB and had been planning for a lunch date soon but it never got to be with both of us being so sick. I will cherish all the pm's that we had chatted about and will miss her quirky personability...she was the TRUE original!!! Please know that she will be missed by all those that had the chance to meet & get to know her...she was an AWESOME friend!! Rest in Peace, dear friend and know that you are missed more than you'll ever know!!! LOVE you all & God Bless!!!

“ My condolences to the Martinez families. I'm sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:29 which states: "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Therefore the Bible promises that there will be a time when we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus, we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without wickedness or suffering. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort to you. For more encouraging thoughts on this subject, please visit www.jw.org
