

Cherry Lynn Smock

April 28, 1940 - January 5, 2023

Cherry Lynn Burgin Smock died peacefully in Houston on Thursday, January 5th. She was born to Elmer Ellis and Bertha Ann (Thomas) Burgin on May 28, 1940 in Newport, Kentucky. Cherry spent her early childhood in Wyoming and later in California before moving to Houston, Texas in the late 1950's.

Cherry is survived by her husband James of 48 years, her three children, Sherie, Terry and Jacob, grandchildren Jessica, Charlie, Jerry, Jason, Jimmy and Sam, great grandchildren Erik, Marcie, Michael and Cameron, great-great grandchildren Sammy, Everly, and Dakota; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents Elmer and Ann, sister Carol, brother George, first husband Gerald Hynes, nephew William Mahan, son in law John Standley, father in law Rip Smock and brother in law Joe Smock.

Cherry was a hardworking, talented woman and a natural born salesperson who spent many years working alongside her husband James in the Spring Branch area of Houston and later in Waller County.

She was a loyal friend to a lot of people and a champion to those in need, taking care of people was what she loved to do. Cherry was a culinary genius who could cook just about any kind of food, best known for her delicate sweets but just as likely to catch a live critter on the side of the road, butcher it, process it and make a scrumptious meal out of it.
