“ *I will always remember the fun time we had together chris!you were always the one that i'd get into trouble with, but it was always worth it! You've left it up to me to be the oldest cousin of 12 now! and i promise i will not let you down! I have to say being to 4 funerals in less than 6 months made it a bit hard to see you but i smiled because of all the wonderful memories we have! I know over the years we haven't been as close as we used to be but i will never forget you sweetheart! I'll never forget going to your house and playing hide & seek with you travis & derrick, climbing on the hay bails and again always getting into trouble! it never failed! haha well I LOVE YOU so much cousin!
love,

“ Uncle Ronnie, Aunt Maryette, Frank, Ginger, and Derrick, Words cannot express the loss our family is going through. Chris was one of my dearest and most cherished childhood friends. I am only saddend by the fact that we lost touch once we became adults, as it so often happens. I love you all and miss you very much. I am sorry I couldn't attend the service. I love you and my prayers are with you all.

Chris, I miss you and love you. Rest in Peace cousin.

Love always, Amber

“ My friend Frank,
I am praying for you and your family. There are no words that can express the sorrow and pain that I feel for you and your family. We could write all the beautiful words in the world and yet they would not be enough to heal your heart any sooner. I pray that you keep in mind, that these are not “Our Kids”, they belong to the Lord. All of our lives belong to him. Christopher was not taken from you, but simply “Called Home.” I pray that you do not harden your heart, but rather humble yourself and allow God to reach your inner spirit. I pray that God allows you to look within yourself so that you may find Peace, Comfort and Understanding. I pray that these few words of encouragement will in some way help you cope with the loss of Christopher. Finally, I pray that you will “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding”. Prov 3:5 God Bless

“ My deepest and sincerest sympathies to Ginger and all the family. My love for Chris was deeper than you'll ever know. He was that special little boy that touched my heart and had me wrapped around his little finger forever. He was the firstborn of all 13 grandchildren on Ginger's side of the family succeeded by: Grandfather Gerald Martin and Grandmother, Janelle Trahan, 3 Aunts and 1 Uncle, Sherri Landry, Terri Nelson, Michelle Martin and Gerald Martin, Jr. Our faith and hope lay in Jesus' ransom and God's promises in the Bible. "And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore..."Rev. 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Isa. 25:8; Isa. 65:17,21-25 May "the God of all comfort" be with you.

“ My sister Ginger, my heart shares your tremendous pain & what seems like endless tears. For Ginger & all the Chatham/Martin families: May Jehovah God grant us peace & comfort as we cherish our memories of Christopher. And please remember that when we pick up the pieces of our life and put them back together, we are showing "endurance, in turn, an approved condition... in turn, hope, and the hope does not lead to disappointment; because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy spirit, which was given us."- Rom.5:1-5.

The last time I talked to you, I wanted you to come see me in Florida. I couldn't wait to move back to Texas so we can become closer and make up for all the lost time. Now it's too late for our chance here on earth, but some day I will see you again and hold you and tell you how much I loved you. Thank you for calling me when I sent you your birthday card, just hearing your voice made my day. You are in a better place my son and you will feel no pain, not be sick or hurt anymore. Get some rest, my son, for we have alot of catching up to do.*
