Clarence Roger "Buddy" Bloodgood
February 8, 1947 - March 21, 2026

Buddy Bloodgood was born February 8, 1947, in Huntsville, Texas. He went home to be with the Lord on March 21, 2026, at 79 years of age.

In 1965, Buddy graduated from Huntsville High School, where he met his future wife, Janice. Buddy served in Vietnam. Following his return from war, Buddy worked for the Texas Department of Corrections. At various times, the family lived in Dodge, Navasota, Oakhurst and Huntsville. In 1999, Buddy retired from TDC.

Buddy had a wry sense of humor and loved to laugh and pull pranks on friends and family. He loved to hunt and was a heck of a "42" player. He spent many years participating in ranch rodeos. Buddy was an excellent cook and food was his love language. In recent years, he spent time teaching his kids and grandkids how to cook some of his specialties. He had a big soft spot for his grandkids and great-grandkids. Buddy and Janice enjoyed the company of family, maintaining close contact with extended family through the years. They enjoyed travelling with family on trips through Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee.

Buddy was predeceased in death by his parents, Clarence and Sue, by his beloved wife of 53 years, Janice, and by his grandson, Carson Bloodgood. Buddy is survived by his daughter, Kristi Wilson (husband Scott), and by his son, Barry Bloodgood. Buddy has four grandchildren—Kaylin (Justin), Col-ton (Jaydyn), Charlotte and Brynn--and four great-grandchildren—Keegan, Addison, Colter and Kimber. Buddy is also survived by his sisters Norma, Pat and Barbara and their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A service celebrating Buddy's life will be held on Wednesday, March 25 at 11:00 a.m. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home located at 1700 Normal Park Drive in Huntsville, Texas. The family will receive friends from 10:00-11:00 before the service. A burial service will follow the memorial service at Center Hill Cemetery in Oakhurst, Texas.
