Clarence W. Hopkins Obituary

Clarence Wesley Hopkins, born in Dodge City, Kansas on November 6, 1944 passed away on December 1, 2025 in Huntsville, Texas at the age of 81.

Clarence served in the U.S. Army for 10-years with his most fond memories being in Germany as well as Fort Hood, Texas.

After serving in the Army, Clarence obtained his B.S. at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor and pursued work in the field of radiology.

He shared many stories with his family about his military service and work in the radiology field, as well as his love for singing and playing the piano. It was evident by all that his passion was music of all varieties, with the blues and country being his favorite.

Clarence is survived by his son Steven "Earl" Hopkins as well as two sisters, Jean Standlee and Virginia Rae Ward, numerous nieces, nephews and two granddaughters Annabelle and Felicity Hopkins. Preceded in death by sister Dorothy Pearce and her husband Jesse and parents Ed Prather Hopkins and Cleo Mildred Hopkins.

Clarence will be laid to rest at the Houston National Cemetery on Monday, December 22, 2025 at 12:45 PM with military honors. Arrangements under the direction of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home.

“ Uncle Clarence had the biggest heart, and the greatest love of family. Christmas was a time he enjoyed making sure all family members received his beautifully addressed Christmas cards. He gave his time, he opened up his home to any family in need. As a child, I would be in awe listening to him sing and play the piano. He had such a talent. He will forever be in mine, and my kids hearts. Prayers to his Son, and his grandkids, for comfort in peace going forward. Love ya Uncle Clarence ❤️

“ I will miss you so much my friend. I have loved every story you have shared with me. I will miss looking out my window every evening as you checked the mail and walking in my door with a big smile and that little dance in your step. Thank you for teaching and showing me that no matter the circumstances always find happiness and smile.
Love your adopted daughter ❤️
