- Cleatus had a heart for fun and laughter. He was always ready for a celebration, barbecue with friends and family, a ride on his boat with family aboard, or just visiting with those he loved to include lots of laughter, joking and music. Everyone that met Dad loved him even his nurses and the staff

“ Look to God for strength. He said he would be available if you called on him. I pray that Mr. Urick's fingerprints he made in the lives of those that truly knew him show up during every sad moment. He was a Good man and loved his family. Follow his instructions and search your hearts for good memories. You will find peace and courage to keep going on from day to day. Always remember there is no time limit on grief, cry, scream, fuss and do what you must. When you're finished go do something to relieve your mind. The devil is crafty, he will try to put you in a place of depression and that's a no, no for those who believe in Christ. He said he's near and dear to the broken-hearted and He will be there every time you cry. I love you and I'm praying for the entire family.
