

Clemmie T. McMullen

May 22, 1923 - December 23, 2006

Clemmie T. McMullen, (Phillips) 83, passed away in the early morning of December 20, 2006. Clemmie was born on May 22, 1923 to Alonzo and Cora Phillips in Madisonville, Texas. She was married to James William McMullen on May 21, 1949. She is preceded in death by her mother and father; brother Vernon Phillips, and identical twin sister Callie Walker. Clemmie is survived by her husband James McMullen; son, Phillip McMullen, wife Nancy; brother, Rev. Moody Phillips; sisters, Ruth Cain and Dell Williams; her grandchildren, Jamie McMullen, Misty Mandujano, husband Christian, stepson; Ken McMullen, wife Alva Lee; grandchildren, Patricia Matthews, husband Randy, James McMullen, wife Ginger, stepson; Jim McMullen, wife Diane, grandchildren, Kim Korte, Tim McMullen, wife Abigail; and 11 great grandchildren. Services will be held Saturday December 23, 2006 at noon at the New Waverly First Baptist Church. Interment will follow at Madisonville City Cemetery at 2:30 PM. The family will receive friends from 5 to 8 PM at the funeral home Friday, December 22nd. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com. Clemmie was an amazing person and lived her motto: "If you don't have something good to say about someone then don't say anything at all". She was a devout Christian, a faithful companion, a loving mother, and an awesome cook. She enjoyed sewing and making crafts but her passion was her vegetable garden. She was a wonderful grandmother and truly enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. Clemmie longed for a better place; the way she lived her life reflects the blessed assurance of Heaven. We were all blessed to have her in our lives and she will be deeply missed. "Clemmie, you are truly an angel among us"
