“ So sorry to hear of Miss Sissy's passing. She was a wonderful caring and compassionate person with people and animals alike. I'll always remember her and her little dog Skeeter that would come to watch clogging practice at Patricia's. Miss Sissy was so caring for her entire family. My prayer for the family is that God will bring the peace that only He can bring during this time. She had such a struggle these past few years with her health. May she rest in peace.

“ My deepest sympathy to William, Daphne, Billy, and Cookie, and family~
Sissy was an awesome lady, and I have never known anyone that loved her family, and each living creature so much! Sissy never met a stranger, and she loved everyone she met. I have lots of wonderful memories of our Opry days that I shall always cherish. I know how much she loved Elvis, and you know she has already met him by now!

“ I am send my condolences to family of "Sissie". I have never met this sweet woman but I have known her daughter. Sissie had to have been a special woman to have rised such a great daughter. You go Sissie, the load is awaiting your company. I pray that the lord lays his hands on the family and friends and heals the pain of your loss. You all are in my heart and my prayers. May God bless each and every one of you.
