

Cloy Lane Seefeld

January 26, 1934 - April 16, 2022

Cloy Lane (C.L.) Seefeld, 88, was born at home in Causey, New Mexico on January 26, 1934. He began dating the love-of-his-life, Betty, at age 15 and shortly after they graduated high school in 1951, at age 17, they were married. C.L. navigated the challenges of raising a family with Betty while attending college and working different jobs around the campus. After graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, he and Betty moved several times to further his career. Together, during their 68 years of marriage, they lived in New Mexico, all over Texas, Algeria, and Saudi Arabia.

C.L. is known to those close to him for his entertaining stories recounting his past adventures. He loved wood-working and was meticulous in his creations. He loved traveling, working in his yard, reading, and most especially, he loved his family.

C.L. is survived by his children: son Mike Seefeld and wife, Debra; daughter Pam Patman and husband, Dan; sister Bobbie Streich and husband, Peter; brother Larry Seefeld and wife, Margaret; granddaughter Sabrina Stout and husband, David; grandson Matthew Sutter; along with 4 great-grandchildren and several bonus grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A service to honor C.L. will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Montgomery, Texas on Saturday, April 23, 2022, from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to honor C.L. to: Helping Hands, 67-1/2 April Wind South, Montgomery, TX 77356. (Make checks payable to "Helping Hands").

“ May I offer my deepest sympathy and condolences to the family that Cloy Lane loved so much. I'm Leslie Earwood. Cloy Lane and I grew up together at Causey. We graduated together with His precious wife Betty Mae. May the rich and caring Father surround you with His awesome presence as you make the transition without Cloy Lane and Betty Mae. Thank goodness for our Father's promise of a resurrection!
