“ Lil bro I miss you and getting goose bumps as I write this. We had good times when you moved to San Marcos and I loved you like a brother... I was in prison when you passed and had to hear what happened over the phone and it crushed me I will be by to see where you lay to make peace with you being gone soon as I can... they finally released me and in memory I promise I'll succeed and be the Dad you always told me I could be for Cay
I LOVE YOU FAM REST IN PARADISE 100 ☐

“ I had the honor of putting Colt on his first Redfish on East Galveston Bay. He was a natural born angler and I loved to hear his stories of pond hopping the golf course for large mouth bass.

“ I lived right down the street from colt in malardcrest dr. ill never forget when I first moved in. the second I saw colt he was my first love as a little girl lol we would spend our summers together playing with our walkie talkies and ill never forget his sweet smile and freckles. It breaks my heart to know that he is no longer with us but the memories will forever live in our hearts. rest in in paradise colt
