

Cora Mae LaTourette

January 14, 1949 - August 25, 2022

Cora Mae LaTourette was born in Phillipsburg NJ to Harold and Cora LaTourette on January 14, 1949.

She went to her eternal resting place on August 25, 2022 surrounded by her kids and grandkids.

Cora was well known for her sassy way of life. You never knew what she was going to say or where she was going to end up.

She leaves behind her loving mother Cora LaTourette from Great Meadows, NJ, her children Sheila King and Husband Troy, Jennifer Perkins and Husband Josh, JR Ortiz and Wife Miriam.

Her grandchildren Steven and wife Keri, Zoey and Husband Robert, Lakota and Husband Nickolas, Starr and Husband Chance, Janessa, Asiel, Yariel.

Her most prized possessions are her great grandchildren, Caitlyn, Sophia, Jazlyn, Judy, Willow, Rainnie, Kayden. She also leaves behind her siblings Richard, Harold, Herk and Bev.

She was preceded in death by her sister Sue, her brother Marty and her father Harold.

The family would like everyone to know that Cora never met a stranger, Everyone she ever spoke to was in some way part of her family.

A Special Thank You to 1st Choice Hospice, Their nurses and aids for giving mom the best care.

JR, Jennifer and Sheila would like to specially thank Cora's Oldest Granddaughter Zoey.

The last two months she was not only Cora's caregiver while the family worked. but she was her Best Friend. With taking care of her three girls Zoe made every day special.

No matter what was going on Zoe sat by Cora's side talking and listening and caring for her with the love only a grandchild could give.

“ We had fun when we were young. Then we went our separate ways. Whenever we got together, we shared a laugh and teased each other. There were only a couple of people who could get away with calling you Stinky and I was one of them. My sympathy to your family and Loved ones. I'll miss you, Cuz. John and Terry Lefler

“ I remember the first time I met Cora. And yes she was a sassy woman for sure. And I was very happy when she came to my dad's funeral on the behalf of Sheila King and Steve and Zoey. I am very sorry for your loss. It's very hard when a parent or parents pass. Sending tons of love and prayers and hugs from all of us here. Love Rick&Tina ❤️
