

Crissa Alexis Kukua-Mallet

June 29, 2013

Crissa Alexis Kukua-Mallet Crissa Alexis Kukua-Mallet entered our world on September 15, 2001. She was given to Cameron Kukua-Lee and Mark Mallet and to our blended families to nurture and love, until she left our world to enter God's kingdom on June 22, 2013. Crissa leaves behind two little sisters who love her very much: Kirsten Kukua and Kris Lee, and two little brothers: Greyson and Devon Mallet. She leaves behind step-father Chris Lee and the Lee and Hightower family. She also leaves behind grandparents: Karen Kukua, Penny "Mudda" and Rawlin Mallet, Rod and Diana Kukua, Minnie Jennings, and Walter and Laura Lee. Crissa leaves great-grandparents: Marion Mallet and Beverly Iglehart, Bob and Judith Kukua and Clarence Thomas. Crissa's very special family members included Uncle Michael Kukua and Great Aunt Vicki O'Bryant ("G-Mama"), and Aunt Roz ("Rozzie") Mallet. Special cousins are: Chad, Marcus, and Shawn, Lana, and Michaela. Crissa leaves behind a host of other aunts, uncles, and cousins. Special friends are: Ariana and Abbey. Crissa loved singing, dancing, swimming, cheerleading, and playing keyboard. Crissa was a big fan of Taylor Swift, Carly Rae Jepsen, and Beyonce. Her favorite TV shows included: Pretty Little Liars, Duck Dynasty, Disney movies, and the Disney channel. She sang in the school choir in 3rd and 4th grade, was on yearbook staff in 5th grade, and was an honor roll student throughout her school years. Crissa loved Vacation Bible School, and participating in school talent shows. She was baptized and became a member of Pine Bluff Missionary Baptist Church where she joined the children's choir. Crissa also loved to travel, and has been our little "diva world traveler" to places such as Dallas, Washington D.C., Maryland, and Florida. Crissa's first flight was when she was just one month old. It was a short trip to San Antonio, but she has loved flying ever since. Crissa loved messaging with friends on her iPod, so much so that she was routinely losing iPod privileges. Yes, Crissa was our little first class diva. She loved clothes (brand names only please!), boots, purses, Bath and Body Works "Sweet Pea" scented items, and lots of pink and purple. She loved her hair flat-ironed, and she loved taking photos of herself and also welcomed others taking photos of her! Crissa loved playing big sister to Kirsten and Kris, especially "doing" their hair and nails. She wanted to be a cosmetologist and do hair and nails, and practiced her expertise on her sisters as often as possible. On Saturday, June 22, 2013, our little diva left flying First Class on a Life Flight helicopter with angels. The angels swept her away during flight, and we could not believe that our precious child was gone...only 11 years old...how could this be...so young, so full of life...not quite ready to fly with angels...we thought.... A Poem from Crissa:: If you had your way I wouldn't be here I'd be there with you today Not far away, but near If you had your way I would grow up and old You would be okay You'd still have your child to mold Instead, God had His way He said "Child the Kingdom awaits...there is much to do!" The angels whispered, "Crissa, it's okay. Angels need hair and nails done, too!" Services will be held Saturday, June 29, 2013, 11:00 a.m., at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas with interment to follow in Pine Hill Cemetery in Huntsville. Crissa will lie in state Friday, June 28, 2013, from 9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m., with a wake from 5:00-8:00 p.m., at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com

“ I am so sorry about your loss me and Crissa were great friends and we had a lot of ups and downs but I didn't want her to leave so fast she was only 11 years old she was like my sister I don't what to do everyone in school walks around saying u no Crissa dieted that's sad just hearing them say it I really hope that she was here right now and even the people that were mean to her cryed and they wished what they said mean to her before they wanted to take it back so bad when I first found out about it I came home from church and my neighbor said you no that little girl that dieyed I said no so then the next week she opened her car door and the homecoming thing came out and I saw her picture and it said her name and I went home crying I didn't no what to do I miss her soo much I watch her YouTube videos and look at her instagram pictures because it makes me feel like she is still here but then it still makes me cry I carry her homecoming thing around in my backpack everyday cause it makes me feel like she at school with us but then when we are all in a group it reminds me once again that she dieyed I new her since 2nd grade and we spent a lot of time together then she once over the summer right after school was out she said you should come over my house I said when she said I don't no then she said I will call you next week and talk to you and your mom and I said ok well that very week I heard that she passed and that ruined my day so I don't even remember our last time talking to each other. But I am very sorry for your lose because I cryed like she was my sister that lived with me so I'm very sorry and I will pray for you guys and I'm sorry that my content thing is so late cause I just found out that this was here until I searched her name so I'm sorry for you lose and God bless all of you

“ Hi my name is Cassidi Owen. I was one of Crissa's friends. I am sooooooooooooo sorry to hear about her loss. I don't think I have ever cried so much. I was looking forward to starting a new school year with her. I never thought that she would leave this world like this especially so early in life. I was hoping that we could've been better friends but she has certainly made a change in my life by teaching me what true friendship was all about. I just found out about this. i am so sorry i couldn't make it to the funeral i really would've come if I had known.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. May God Bless you and keep you and your family even afterwards. A prayer: Father, I ask that you send comfort with this family, be with them father. Give them the peace and strength in knowing that your are God. Touch the parents and siblings so that they may smile again in being that their angel has departed with them to be with you. Give the a spirit of joy of knowing that they will see Crissa again. I ask this and all blessings for this family, In Jesus Name. Amen.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Crissa was a very sweet child, she use to come to our house with her Uncle Mike when he and the twins were in high school and college. She loved to sit and watch the fish in the aquarium, and then ask if I had any cookies... She truly Loved her Uncle Michael and we do too. Our prayers are with you all. May God hold you in his arms during this difficult time, only he is able. E

The Lamb Family - June 29, 2013 at 12:09 PM

“Resolution for the family of Crissa Alexis Kukua-Mallet, Whereas the words of Jesus in John 14, "Let not your hearts be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also". Let these words be a comfort to your hearts. Harmony Grove Missionary Baptist Church, 127 John Kay Road of Huntsville, Texas where Reverend Bryant R. Harris is the Pastor would like to humbly extend our deepest sympathy to this brave family.

Therefore be it resolved, that we embrace this family to show our support and love to the family because of the death of this beloved child. We have a bond that will connect us for the rest of our lives. We cannot replace her but we will try to show the love she had for you. The words of the poet Mary Elizabeth Frye in "Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep" says it all...

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there: I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sun ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Please be comforted, God knows all and sees all. He is aware of your pain and sorrow. Lean on Him whom you trust and He will give you the comfort you seek.

Please remember that we are here if you need us.

Humbly submitted this 29th day of June 2013.

Reverend Bryant R. Harris and the entire Harmony Grove Family.

Sis. Terry Martin-Hayward Secretary/Clerk

“ To Our Family in Christ,
The Lord has been with Crissa every step of the way, as he is with us. She is safely tucked in His arms. His promise to us who are in Him is eternity together. Crissa will be missed everyday, but this is not the end, but a beautiful beginning.
Our prayers and love!!

“ Chris and Cameron, we are lifting you both and family up in prayer. We do not understand why God does what He does at times, but we do know that it is all working towards our good, and that we must trust Him in everything. Maybe its not for us to understand but just to completely trust in Him. God is in control.

“ In remembrance of Crissa

To You, O Lord, we humbly entrust Crissa, so young and precious in Your sight. Take her into Your arms and welcome her into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping nor pain, but the fullness of peace and joy with Your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

All of my love and prayers are with your family.
