“ So sorry to hear about your loss. Death is such a hard thing to deal with and that is why it is referred to as an enemy, 1 Cor. 15:26. This is something that God did not want for his people, but he does give us a hope of a resurrection where we will see our loved ones again, John 5:28,29. May you hold on to that hope and also find comfort from your family and friends.

“ Jay - I am so sorry for your loss...I never got the chance to meet your wife but know she was a good person from the way you would talk about her when you came to Vantage to work on our computers. If there is anything I can do to help please don't hesitate to contact me.
