March 15, 1942 - January 12, 2015

Curtis P. Cook

Class of '64

Texas A&M University

Curtis was born on March 15, 1940 to Roy H. and Myrle (Peyton) Cook in Dallas, Texas. He left us on January 12, 2015 to be with his deceased daughter, Sandra, his parents and his sister, Nancy.

Curtis was a graduate of Floresville High School. Upon graduation from A&M, he began his career in Petroleum Engineering. His first job was with Texaco, Inc. for 15 years. During his career he worked both stateside and overseas. He was also a lobbyist of the State of West Virginia in Washington, D.C. He retired in 1995 from Cabot Oil & Gas and he and Joy moved to Huntsville, Texas.

Surviving family are his wife, Joy, son Mark, grandchildren Cassie (granddaughter/daughter), Chris, Sean and Alan, as well as brothers Jim and Dale, and sister Nelda.

The family thanks Ms. Madhu, Becky Portell, Yvonne Wheat his beloved Rosa Briones and Jackie Terrell for their love and concern during his stay at the nursing home.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 AM on Wednesday, February 4, 2015 in the chapel at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas.

Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

“ My name is Steve Heitzman. I met Curtis at Huffco Petroleum in the 1980's. I considered Curtis a friend and enjoyed working with him. This week March 15th 2025 I was going to call Curtis to see if he could have lunch. I am very sorry to discover that Curtis and Joy have both passed. Best wishes to his family.
