Curtis Eric Owens

1955 – 2016

Curtis Eric “Buddy” Owens passed away on September 17, 2016 after a very brief battle with cancer. He was born in Houston, Texas on January 27, 1955 and had lived in Columbus, Texas for the more than ten years. Curtis was the eldest of Wanda Lee Wright and Richard E. “Pete” Owens, Jr.’s five children.

Curtis is preceded in death by his father. He is remembered by his mother as well as brothers and sisters-in-laws: Rick and Theresa Owens, Ronnie and Lori Owens, and sisters and brothers-in-laws: Debbie and David Hensarling and Kathy and Mike Boudreaux. He also leaves behind nieces and nephews: Rob and Mikal Hensarling, Morgan and Cory Boudreaux, and Courtney and Seth Owens, as well as five great nieces and nephews.

Curtis lived a simple life and will be remembered as a gentle and caring man. While he was not a man of great wealth, he was always willing to help a friend. He loved old cars and had a passion for animals and was known to take in and care for “strays”.

A visitation will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home on Friday, September 23, from 9:30-11:00am with services following at 11am. The graveside service will follow at East Sandy Cemetery, New Waverly, Texas.

The family is asking that in lieu of flowers or plants that you donate to your local SPCA or Animal Shelter.

“ Please accept my sympathies on the passing of Curtis. I would like to share some scriptures that offer comfort and hope. The Creator tells us that our dear loved ones will be resurrected. (Isaiah 26:19). You can see Curtis again. The Creator Jehovah who cannot lie has promised this. (Titus 1:2)
