“ Ernie and I saw D. A. on Sunday mornings at the 10:00 a.m. meeting. He inspired all of us with his strength and experience. An humbler man I don't think I've ever met. He told me a few weeks ago when I asked him if he'd been fishing yet since retirement that when he was working he went fishing to feel at peace and to get away from stress, but now that he was retired, he just didn't feel the need as he was free of stress and felt at peace all the time....A wonderful conversation to remember.

“ I was in shock after hearing of D.A.'s passing. I had just seen and talked to him Friday at the noon meeting. I have known D.A. for seven years and always enjoyed listening to him share. I looked forward to visiting with him before and after meetings. D.A. seemed to be one of the most peaceful men I have ever known. He was always kind and never judgemental. I will miss him terribly as will many others. I hope when my time comes I will be as ready as he was....
