“ Your dad thanked me for being there at the service, but he did not need to. It was MY honor to "stand guard" and hold the flag in final respect to a man who watched over me, my family and this nation, and the least I could do; He was a fellow Christian, fellow Motorcycle Rider, and for a too-short time, a true friend; Kim will be sorely missed and fondly and often remembered; Pam, we hold you and yours in our prayers and leave our hands and hearts open at ANY time.

“ My Condolences to the family. As a fellow co-worker, I knew him to be a true, loyal, honest, dependable, man. It goes without saying he will be missed by many and only a few of them his equal. Rest in peaced my friend.
