“ I have been trying to find Danielle for years. I met her in elementary school and she was a dear sweet friend I was so sad to lose when I moved away. I'll never forget making pancakes with her the morning after a slumber party when we were 9 and they tasted horrible, but we ate them anyways because we made them ourselves. She loved being silly and we laughed together all of the time. I am so sad to finally have found her only to hear of her passing away. My condolences to everyone who knew and loved her.

“ YOu may never understand why or even how. But beleive it or not there is a reason & a plan. God had set that plan in place long before the twins were even born. Though your loss is great your futher joys will be many as you have been blessed with 2 not 1 but two beautiful babies that were a part of your daughter - let the love and laughter of thoses babies bring a smile to face and help dry the tears in your eyes. I pray God bless and keep each of you safe.

“ Danielle was a wonderful person who made an impact on all those fortunate enough to know her. Danielle had an infectious smile and a charming laugh, and could brighten a room just by entering it. She was beautiful both inside and out, and I'm glad to have been touched by such a wonderful person. God has gained a soul in Heaven worthy of his presence. I am praying for all those who have felt her loss and those who didn't get a chance to know her. God Bless her family and her boys, you're in my thoughts and my prayers.

“ I am Johnnie Irvin's sister and I am unbelievably saddened by the loss of such a young life. Johnnie used to bring Dustin & Danielle to our house for Christmas and we all had a wonderful time. I remember how smart, beautiful and sweet she was and how much we enjoyed having her and Dustin in our home. Just remember that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers as you deal with this unimaginable loss.

“ I never expected to see you go, Danielle thanks for all the memories. We've had a lot, good and bad. From cake fights, hanging out, making song videos of Earl had to die in our slippers... To Becky grounding us at your birthday party {yes i got grounded too} & making up and having the best night ever. Even cinnamon rolls in the morning! Nothing could ever take my love away from you Danielle. I love you like a sister and always have. I can't wait to see you again one day. All I can do is thank God for every day that we got to share.

I love you D!

“ I am so glad that I was graced with the presence of Danielle's life. We were good friends back in elementary and middle school and I graduated with her in 05. I will remember her always laughing and smiling. There is not a time that I can think of when she was frowning. She was a beautiful, intelligent mother. I am deeply sadden by her loss. May God be with her family and friends. I know she is up there watching over everyone with her bright green eyes and her big smile. Rest In Peace Girl!!! -Ashley Rumbaugh

“ I am deeply sorry and saddened by your loss. As you know, I have known Danielle for a long time. We graduated together and laughed a lot together. She was one of my very best friends. I feel like one of the most priviledged people in the world that I got to spend some time with her this Monday. She is very special to me and I will never forget her. If you need anything, I am here for you. My family and I are praying for you every day.

“ I have known Danielle for pretty much my whole life. I remember she always lived her life to the fullest. She was always making everyone laugh and be happy. When I was 16, I was dating this boy named Jonathan Crouch and he was my first love and the cause of my first heart break. I came to school and there was Danielle with that unforgettable smile. She made me smile and told me to never let anyone bring me down and no man should be the cause of a heart break to a young and beautiful girl. Danielle, I will love and miss you dearly. I know you are up in Heaven making God and everyone else smile and laugh. You and Kelsey are best friends and pretty much experienced everything together including this time of sadness. You made an impact on everyone's life that knew you. And for that I will carry a smile on my face in remembrance of your beautiful smile. I know you will make sure your boys are doing fine and you will always be there for them someday somehow. RIP Danielle “ Danielle and I first met in high school at a football game when some other girls were being rude & calling me names. So Danielle got down on one knee and jokingly proposed to me. She stuck up for me and every since then we were best friends. She stood by me through everything.. guy problems, friend problems, family problems.. everything. She was such a good person. I have so many memories with Danielle and her family. So many experiences that I will never forget. I loved her and her family as if they were my own. Now she can be our BEAUTIFUL GUARDIAN ANGEL.

“ Danielle was such a great person. I have knew her in high school which was 5 years ago and we still talked on myspace every couple of months. Even though I was older than Danielle, she made a mark in my life and the lives of my dearest friends. She loved life, but more than anything she loved her boys. I was so proud of her for taking the task of raising her boys alone, but she did it with pride and never gave up. She will be missed, but I know that she has Kelsey right next to her up in Heaven. I am praying for the Irvin family everyday and I know that it is an unthinkable loss they are having to deal with. Stay strong because Danielle wouldn't want it any other way. God Bless you all!

“ I knew Danielle through out highschool. And I think she was one of the most energetic, fun and outgoing persons I knew. She always had something to say for me to laugh at and there was never a dull moment with her. I have many memories of her and I am going to make sure they NEVER fade. I am so confused about why and how this happened. But I see it as they are up in Heaven together, watching over all of us and She will be with the boys in spirit for the rest of their lives! I will keep you all in my prayers!!

“ I am praying for you and your family. I am Scott Self's mother. I never got a chance to meet Danielle, but I heard wonderful things about her all the time. Scott and I ran several errands together that day and they spoke on the phone with each other many times before they went to the movies that night. He really liked her and is very upset over this tragic loss of one of his best friends he ever had. He also said she was a very good mother. I can't imagine what you might be going through right now, but please be assured that I, along with many people, are praying for you and your loss and for her children. They are beautiful boys and we are here for you to help in any way we can. God Bless you and your family.
