I thank god everyday for having him in my life as long as i did and the gift of our son he gave to me. He was one of my dearest friends and i will always treasure that and hold it close. My son and i speak of him often and i talk to him all the time, this is my way of staying close. Thanks to all my friends who was at my house or calling within minutes of it happening. “ Rhonda, Our hearts are breaking for you and Danny's family for your loss. Somethimes you just can't make sense as to why God would call home someone so young and full of life as Danny. But I have to believe that the night and morning sky was in need of another star to light our way. So look up and see that one star that has a special bright shine and winking back, that will be Danny letting you know that he's there to always watch over you and his family. Our prayers are with you. We Love you!
