

David Brian Johnson

August 18, 1972 - February 21, 2016

David Brian Johnson was born August 18, 1972 and at 43 years old, lost his battle with cancer. He passed away February 21, 2016, surrounded by family.

David lived most of his life in or around Montgomery, Texas. He learned to hunt on the property he grew up on and it was one of his favorite things to do, especially in South Texas. He was passionate about watching the deer and other animals and wanted to share that love and knowledge with his children.

David was preceded in death by his Paternal Great Grandparents Nathaniel and Maggie Johnson and Maternal Great Grandparents RV and Avis Prater. David is survived by Son, David Brian Johnson Jr., daughters Daphne Nadine Johnson and Dallas Caitlin Johnson; his Mother and Step Father, Brenda and Raymond Allshouse; Grandparents Wallace and Jean Johnson; Uncle Merlyn Johnson; Aunt Lisa Johnson; Aunt and Uncle Shelia and H.L. Mcbroom; Cousins, extended family, special friends and his constant companion, Hooch.

At David's request, there will not be an open service, however, when David was undergoing treatments at MD Anderson, Houston, he visited the Children's ward and would like donations made to them if anyone feels led to do so. You may leave written memorial condolences at www.shmfh.com
