“ David, John and Gloria...

Please accept our deepest sympathy on losing your “Pop” and know that we pray that God will grant you peace. I know one person in heaven that will be very happy to see him... my Dad, Ralph. Uncle David was so much like my Dad and seeing the picture on the internet made me smile and cry at the same time. The last time I got to see him was during a visit to my Dad in Indy maybe 10 years ago.

Pam, my wife and I now live in Tupelo, MS and we just found out about your Dad's passing late yesterday afternoon. Actually my Pam was visiting her mother in Indianapolis and read about Uncle David in the obituary section of Indianapolis Star.

I hope we have a chance to talk soon and remember the loved ones that have passed.

God bless your families.

“ Our hearts are all heavy here in Indy for all of you and your children. The picture of your dad was what I remember most. That was the way he looked when he lived with us when I was little. I was his side kick and he used to have to lock his door to have some privacy. He was a WONDERFUL uncle and a great father and I know a great grandpa.

A family can be a circle of strength and love.

Every joy shared adds more love, and every crisis faced together makes the circle stronger.

God Bless you all,

Becky Koenig Morris
