

David Scott Plank

October 29, 1970 - January 31, 2022

David Scott Plank was born to Thomas and Beverly Plank on October 29th, 1970 in Indianapolis, Indiana, but spent the majority of his childhood in Willis, Texas.

Scott was a compassionate, outgoing, generous, and energetic person, and a loving and gracious husband. He greatly loved his own children and children through marriage, but he also served as a father-figure to many outside of his family. He never met a stranger and was kind to everyone who crossed his path. Scott's father introduced him to auto racing as a child, and Scott subsequently became a fervent NASCAR and Indy 500 fan. He was an avid collector of LEGOs and could spend hours assembling kits. He was drawn to animals and, likewise, animals were frequently drawn to his calming presence.

Scott Plank passed away suddenly and unexpectedly at the age of 51, in the arms of his wife, on January 31st, 2022, due to complications from a recent battle with COVID-19. He is preceded in death by his father, Thomas Plank. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Norma Jean Plank; his mother, Beverly Plank; his siblings, Thomas Plank & Crystal Plank; his children: Travis Plank, Lacie Paiva, and Kristin Gordon; his step-children, Daniel Horn, Jessica Shelton (Kyle), Jackie Belowski (Raymond), Aaron Horn, and David Horn; his nephews, Patrick & Jaxsen Lewis; his niece, MacKenzie Montgomery; and many beloved grandchildren and cousins. He is, and will continue to be, greatly missed by many.

A celebration of life will be held Thursday February 3, 2022 at 1:00 p.m at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Willis Texas.
