“ I was privileged to meet Debbie thur my sweet daughter Rachael Patrick's fiancé and to find out she and I had more in common. We both drove school buses! I became her chauffeur during her trips for treatment. She shared many stories of her loving children and after I met them she was so correct:)! Debbie has raised a loving daughter and sons. I will keep her family in my prayers for their continued healing and and loving caring legacy for the sweet family left. 🙏

“ Such a sweet, sweet woman. When my kids was small I would leave on my route and she would go into the daycare at the bus barn and rock my little girl because she would be crying that I had to leave. Such a angel. May you rock all the babies in heaven.<3

“ My brother David passed two weeks ago, he had always told Deborah that he was coming to get her on his motorcycle and take a trip. I like to think that he did and they're riding in heaven right now, laughing and having a good time with the rest of our loved ones who are already there. I love you my sweet cousin, always have and always will. Rest in Peace.

“ Debbie was a joy to know on Facebook. She was always ready with a prayer or an uplifting word for someone. Remember her well from high school but did not run around together. We knew each other through mutual friends. She made you feel like you were the most important person on Facebook. Her jokes, and funny post were something I looked forward to. She posted things that mattered to her and passed along anything that she felt might help you in some way. Heaven will be much brighter with Debbie there. She will be greatly missed.
