

Deborah Nicole Huebner

July 17, 1964 - June 6, 2017

Deborah Charles Huebner, born in Houston, Texas, July 17th, 1964, passed peacefully in her sleep on June 6th, 2017. She graduated from Mercedes High School, class of 1982. She touched many lives with her laughter, caring personality, and her knowledge. She was told twenty some years ago that she had two years to live. She defied the odds, stumped doctors, and never quit fighting till the last of her days. In that time she gained, she took every advantage that she could take, from receiving her Bachelor's degree from Sam Houston State University with a major in English, and a double minor in Psychology and Spanish. She traveled around the country visiting many different sites and cities. She loved life to the fullest; only thing she loved more was her family. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, and her sister-in-law. She is survived by her husband, Levi Huebner; four children, Jacqueline McCarty and her wife Lisa McCarty, Wesley Dewvall, Joseph Lohse, and Jeremy Lohse; by four grandchildren, Aria Newman, Brooklyn Newman, Emma Lohse, and Willow Newman; and numerous nieces and nephews. She will never be forgotten for she will live in our hearts for all time. The family will be holding a Memorial Service on Sunday, June 11th, 2017, at 1:00 PM at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, 10129 FM 1097 W, Willis, TX 77318.
