“ *Debby was married to my brother John, Ian's dad when I was very young. Our family hadn't seen her for many years until Ian and Kendra were married 12 yrs ago and we saw her at their wedding.
Even then she was kind and sweet and always smiling just the way she always was.*

“ "Aunt" Debbie was hands down the sweetest woman I've ever known. She was always happy and never spoke ill about anyone. She had a great quirky sense of humor and could always make you laugh. She treated me like another niece and I will forever cherish the times we had. We will miss you, dearly, Aunt Debbie, but we know you are waiting to give us all kisses when we meet you on the other side.

“ Her smile. She lit up a room when she came in smiling (or when any of her grandchildren were around). I loved how she would grin at her own jokes. A bright light has gone out here, but has been turned on in heaven.

“ I don't know where to begin. We shared so many happy times and, not too long ago, laughed at things we used to do when we worked together. I will miss you so Debby but you will always be in my thoughts as a huge role you played in my life!

“ I love you Aunt Debby. You were always so much fun, even when people were upset. What a light in our lives. I can't wait to share all the funny stories and memories we all have of you. From falling asleep on the beach with your mouth open, to farting in church in front of a whole row of boy scouts. I am so sorry this happened. I wish we had gotten to say goodbye, but I know you would have just kissed us and laughed about it anyway. I love you.
