

Deborah Ann Winfield

August 3, 1952 - June 18, 2013

Debbie Ann Winfield went to be with her Lord on Saturday, June 15, 2013, after a courageous battle with cancer for the past three years. Debbie's main loves were her family and friends. Her greatest mission in life was being a mother, a grandmother, and a kind, loving wife. No greater love had she. She believed strongly in her Lord, and touched the lives of many people, even in her final days and hours. Her generosity of spirit and kindness of heart will forever be remembered and cherished by those who had the privilege of being influenced by her life. Deborah Ann Kendrick was born to Arnold and Merle Kendrick on August 3, 1952, in San Augustine, Texas. She attended San Augustine, San Antonio, and Boerne schools and graduated from John Marshall High School in San Antonio in 1970. She then attended Angelina College and obtained a R.N. degree and soon began her nursing career. Debbie is survived by her husband Robert David of 38 years; her daughters Melissa Hestilow and husband Colin Hestilow, and Leah Mulligan and husband David Mulligan; her father Arnold Kendrick; her brother Ken Kendrick and wife Gail Kendrick; two precious granddaughters, Delaney Abigail Hestilow and McKenzie Ann Mulligan; and nephew Cade Kendrick. Debbie was preceded in death by her mother Merle Kendrick and nephew Matthew Kendrick. A celebration of Debbie's life will be held on Tuesday, June 18th, at 3:00 p.m. at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home with a visitation on Monday, June 17th, 6:00 – 8:00 pm at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, 1700 Normal Park, Huntsville, Texas. “ To the Winfield and Kendrick families, so sorry to hear of your loss of Debbie. Even though it's been years since our school days in San Augustine, your families were two of the best. Such caring and wonderful people. God Bless all of you in this time of sorrow. Comfort and peace to all.

“ About Debbie.....

*God looked around his garden
And he found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth
And saw her tired face.
He put his arms around her
And lifted her to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful-
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that she was suffering,
He knew she was in pain,
He knew that she would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So he closed her weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".*

*It broke our hearts to loose her,
But she didn't go alone,
For part of us went with her
The day God called her home.*

My thoughts and prayer's are with all of Debbie's family.

“ Even though expected, Debbie's passing on Saturday morning was still heartbreaking news to hear. It's hard to believe that she is gone. But she is now in the arms of our loving Father, where there's no more pain and no sorrow. And who knows, in the midst of a beautiful sunrise/sunset or a fun-filled family day, those close to her will suddenly feel Debbie's presence. She is gone physically, but not spiritually and she'll certainly be in the hearts of all those who love her forever.

“ Words can't express the sadness in my heart in our loss of precious Debbie. She was my "other" daughter and I loved her more than words can say. She was beautiful, inside and out, and as sweet and kind as anyone I ever knew. We know she is in a better place, and we are sad for ourselves, but we will see her again one day.
