“Lundquist Family--Oh how sad I was this morning to read of "Bubbles" passing. I had "no idea" she'd been sick. We lost contact after "My Little Man"(Charlie) passed away and that's been 10yrs now, and after she left Bingo Wonderland. How lucky and blessed we all were to have had "Bubbles" in our lifes and to be among her millions of friends. There was no one like "Bubble's", and she could always make anyone smile, no matter what the issues were. She only knew how to SMILE and make everyone smile with her contigious smile and laughter. How lucky I was to have been her friend for so many, many years--and to have so many wonderful memories of "our fun times together". There were NEVER any bad times with "Bubbles". Through my tears, she'd still make me smile. We were more than just friends, we were "family", and how she did love and cherish her family. I know she is now in Heaven with our Heavenly Father and believe me God DID PICK AN ANGEL WHO WILL MAKE HEAVEN SO MUCH MORE BEAUTIFUL, AND SHE'LL MAKE GOD LAUGH. I know she's already looked up "My Little Man" and they are dancing in Heaven looking down on us. Please feel my deepest sympathy for you and the family for your great loss, but know we'll all meet again soon. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.

“ Love and prayers to the Lundquists who were such a special part of our years in Jersey Village. We were so sad to learn of Denise's passing, but know she is at rest with the Heavenly Host. Such good memories of her suited up as a Falcon and over the earlier years during little league and other events which we all shared.

Across the years and miles, God bless you one and all,
