“ In high school, Dennis was a 'town' kid and I was a 'country' kid, so we mostly just crossed paths when we happened to be in the same classes. I remember him as smart, quiet, and well-liked by students and teachers alike -- an all-around good guy.

I was at a Pittsburg State University football game on Saturday when a kid with the last name of Garrison made an especially tricky one-handed catch. That made me think of Dennis and wonder how he was doing. I guess you never know when someone might be thinking of you somewhere in the world.

“ Dennis has always been a true friend to our family. He worked alongside my mom at the Huntsville item for many years. She thought very highly of him. We all feel very blessed. We were able to say our goodbyes to Dennis as he and my mom were in the same treatment facility. We feel even more blessed that he touched our lives.
