“ Dear Dixie, I was telling Glenda about Bo's passing and she sends her condolences also. She recalled the times when you lived behind me and they would get together and borrow one anothers tools or talk gardening. "What a wonderful man" was her thoughts. You never know how you affect anothers life but I know Bo affected everyone with kindness and friendship and I feel having known him a blessing in my life.

I hope you find comfort in the concern and love of God and your many friends.

My love and concern, Patt
