“ It is with great sadness that I just learned about the death of Dewey. Dewey has been a friend of our family for as long as I can remember (well, maybe a LOT longer than that, lately!). He and my Daddy were both elected officials and always had politics to talk about! I would hear them in our dining room going on & laughing for hours...and then there were the days that other words seemed to be the main language (especially with my Daddy!) :(When you were visiting with other Huntsville folks, you never had to mention his last name, as everyone knew Dewey!! If there was ever any way that he could help you in any way, he'd see to it getting done! I remember one year my oldest daughter was needing some bales of hay for her parade float...in TWO days! I had NO IDEA who to call so I asked my Dad. The next day, there was 6 bales of hay delivered to us in my Daddy's driveway! My Mom worked with Margaret, Dewey's first wife, at Terry's Restaurant when I was just in elementary school, but I knew who Dewey was! I guess he was my first "secret" (well, not anymore!) crush when he would come in all looking like George Strait and with his cowboy hat... I knew he WAS the cowboy!! He and Margaret have remained my lifelong friends and I love them both so very much! Later in my Huntsville lifelong life, I always enjoyed when I ran into Dewey in town. He always asked for a hug & called me "Jamie Sue" or "Curtis's daughter" and I loved that he always recognized me! There'll never be another Dewey Miller, for God just can NOT clone another person like him! I know I will miss him dearly & so will all the people that have EVER met him. Sending Margaret & Paige and their families hugs and lots of love... God Bless. ;) ❤️ ❤️

“ I always volunteered to be the "head room mother" for all four of my children while they were in elementary school. I remember the parents that would be so kind and generous to help with all of the parties. Dewey and his former wife were always so helpful. They both attended the parties and helped wherever needed. I really appreciated their assistance. It has been almost thirty years since elementary parties and I have never forgotten what a blessing they were to help make the children's parties such a wonderful success. They always had a smile and they were always so wonderful to work with.
