“ This picture is exactly how I remember you, such a fun, energetic and loving mom that would do anything for your girls. When I first met your family, I remember you riding Brandy's bike...just playing around with your girls. I also remember how much you loved your dog, Sheba. Very old memories, but great ones. May God bless your family.

My first memory of us together is from Jr High! Then it was high school and Bluebonnets! I was there at the hospital when Brandy was born. Although we lost touch, you were always my friend. God Bless your Mom & Dad, your girls and your husband and I pray for then to receive great strength through this difficult time. Heaven just received another Angel. One day we'll see each other again. Love you, Cheryl Hoover McDaniel

“ Dianna is more like a sister to Debra and I. Our parents have been best friends since high school

Our moms even share the same birthday Dianna is just a few weeks older than me. Since birth Dianna is someone I loved very much, she always had a smile on her face and the first one to lend a helping hand.

Dianna would tackle on anything from fixing a washing machine to dancing on the football field.

She truly amazed me with her many talents. I remember one time we were working together and we landed a job to decorate Christmas trees inside the Wyndham Hotel at Greenspoint. Dianna taught me how to make a beautiful bow, we worked day and night making 100's of these bows. Her and I arrived at the Wyndham Hotel to decorate Christmas Trees with all these bows we had made. To our surprise it was only 1 Christmas Tree. However it was 50' tall inside the main hotel. With NO FEAR at all up the ladder Dianna went and the job was a success. Dianna will always be remembered as a beautiful, sweet loving person who gave so much to her family and friends. With Loving Memories always love Joyce Miller Sterling
