“ Dear Rogers family,

I haven't been in contact with you lately, and was sad to hear about Dick's passing. Dick was a joy to be around and was instrumental in my becoming an artillery officer in our reserve unit in Ponca City. He was an excellent leader with a positive and happy disposition. I certainly enjoyed my service time with him- it was a strong foundation to my reserve career of 23 years.

Nikki, Virginia and I fondly recall our visit with you and Dick when we traveled back from Houston. Your kind hospitality will always be remembered.

Our prayers are with you.
