Dixie was born in Houston, TX to Harold and Georgia Sheffield on November 18, 1959. She had one sister, Connie Sheffield, who she loved dearly. After attending North Shore High School, she graduated from a small Christian private school. In 1979, she began working at Kroger and married Joe Wayne Williams in 1987. After many years in Houston, they moved to several acres of land in New Waverly they named Diamond D Ranch. In 1992, Dixie's nephew Bradley came to live with them as they raised him until he graduated from high school and joined the Marines. She was a dedicated Kroger employee retiring as Drug GM General Manager in 2012.

Dixie enjoyed spending time with her family and had a kind-hearted, giving spirit. She had a passion for animals and especially loved to ride horses. She adored children and cared for the elderly. She was also a lover of chocolate, plants, the Christmas holidays, and anything purple.

Dixie is preceded in death by Harold Sheffield, Connie Sheffield, Glenn 'Rocky' Rockhold, and Bradley Wayne Rawlinson.

Dixie is survived by her proud mother Georgia Rockhold and devoted husband Joe Wayne Williams. She was a caring stepmother to Amy and her husband Bobby Galvan as well as a loving nanny to Jimi Rawlinson, Jesi Rawlinson, Gabriela Galvan, and Olivia Galvan. “ Hi JoeWayne I am just setting here thinking of Dixie and praying she receives her flowers 🌸 Thursday. I am really going to miss her I am still in shock and feel like a part of me died. I know that someday I will see her again and I thank God for that!! Please tell Georgia that I will never forget what a wonderful mother Dixie has and wishing I could see her again, I will never forget the great times we had riding horses and having fun! I loved her so much like she was my own sister. She was the type of person to give the shirt off her back, a very giving person. She loved her animals and hated to see any animal without a home. Especially dogs or cats! Oh yes she loved her horses dearly and hated the fact that she could not ride anymore! She was the most forgiving, compassionate, friendly, and thoughtful person I have ever known. I know I am unable to be there but my spirit will always be with her! Love always , Kim her forever friend!!
